The Trustee has filed a motion to dismiss certain claims asserted in Third-Party Plaintiffs' fourth amended third-party complaint ("FATC"). On October 5, 2011, the Trustee filed a reply brief in support of its motion. In the reply brief, the Trustee raises new arguments that could have been raised in its opening motion. Moreover, it expands the request for relief -- i.e., asking for dismissal of the entire FATC and not simply the two claims initially identified in its opening brief. While the Court should arguably strike the reply brief for those reasons, in the interest of justice, it shall not do
